JEFFERSON COUNTY COUNCIL ELECT NEW CHAIR AND VICE CHAIR

JEFFERSON COUNTY, MO – The Jefferson County Council elected Councilmember Bob Tullock as the new County Council Chair and Councilmember Tim Brown as the new County Council Vice Chair at the January 13, 2025 Council Meeting. The vote was 6 in favor, zero opposed and zero abstained.

Bob Tullock was elected to represent the residents of District 7 in 2023. District 7 encompasses the central and western portions of Jefferson County.

Tim Brown was appointed by the County Council as District 6 Councilmember in October 2024 to fill a vacancy. He was subsequently elected in November 2024 to fill a 4-year term. District 6 covers the southern portion of Jefferson County.

This is Tullock's first term as chair and Tim Brown's first term as Vice Chair.
